SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

The curtain was drawn, the lights were out, and all was quiet. Suddenly in a bevy of noise and confusion the stage crew burst upon the stage. The props, representing the walls of Shawnee High School, literally shook with the din. After all the noise and confusion had subsided, the dazed members of the cast and their understudies realized that these were the members of the stage crew. They were introduced to William Lowery, class president, and his assistants: Jimmy Wheeler, vice-president; Loyce Hunter, secretary; and Sherry Kay Phillips, treasurer. The supervisors were Pauline Ingram, Deward Jameson, and Charles Martin.

The football players, Donald Higgins, William Lowery, and Bill Thomas, were lugging props around. Giving them her moral support was Katherine Cowen, football attendant.

Darrel Tucker and William Lowery were basketball boys. Their most loyal supporter was Javonna Mooney, basketball attendant.

The proud members of the stage crew who possessed some talent and were members of the cast of the Student Council play were Sharon Haddock, Lee Arden Surber, and Bill Oden.

Leading cheers through the year were Janice Alexander and Guy McGregor. Sophomore members of the boys' tennis team were Dale Anderson, Charles Lowery, and Bill Moran. Sophomore drum majorette was Bobbye Van Antwerp.

When the curtain was drawn, all agreed that the sophomores had done their part in making the play a success. They certainly had lived up to their motto: "Forward ever, backward never."

ACT-2
NOBLE

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

The curtain went up on the second act of the stupendous production of Shawnee Senior High School. All the understudies (Juniors) of the cast (Seniors) were suffering from stage fright when thoughts of assuming leading roles in next year's third act raced through their minds. Leaders of this organization were Dick Earnest, president; Bob Sager, vice-president; Jann Guest, secretary; and Mark Bolling, treasurer. Miss Beryl Korb and Mrs. Dana Hendon were chosen sponsors and the year was off with flying colors.

Several starting positions on the powerful Wolves' football team were held by Juniors. This group included Ronnie Morris, Dick Earnest, Clarence Payne, James Hall, Bob Sager, Charles Beck, Bill Dutton, and Eddie Ribbeck. Near the close of the campaign, Morris, as a result of his stellar performances, was voted into the all-district backfield. The boys were inspired to still higher goals when Norma Reeves made her appearance as Junior Class football attendant. Mary Sue Chittum and Jann Guest gave her a close race for the distinction.

Patsy Tennyson out-polled Nancy Porter and Jann Guest for the honor of representing the Junior Class at the annual basketball coronation. Ronnie Morris was leading scorer on the Wolves' state champion basketball team. Other Juniors seeing plenty of action were Bob Carey, James Hall, Dick Earnest, and James Buchanan. All through the sports' seasons Patsy Tennyson and Freeman Scarlett led the all-important cheering.

About this time Dale Young, Eddie Rickey, Donna Schuyler, and Carole Davis began to win honors at speech meets and continued to do so throughout the year.

High school happenings were faithfully reported by Ruella Dockins in her News-Star column, the "Merry-Go-Round."

Holding important offices in the Student Council were Carole Davis, secretary; and Glen McLaughlin, treasurer. Dick Earnest was elected president of the Federation of Oklahoma High School Student Councils at the annual convention held in Norman.

Emily English was chosen by the knightly young men of the Hi-Y to be their 1951-52 sweetheart. Patsy Raymer was runner-up for the honor.

Patsy Tennyson and Bob Carey played leading roles in the annual class play, "We Shook the Family Tree," that was acclaimed by many spectators as one of the best ever given by Juniors. Other members of the cast were Freeman Scarlett, Bob Maynard, Ruella Dockins, Jann Guest, Donna Schuyler, Joann Newberry, Willene Smith, Eddie Rickey, Glenda Coppage, and Dickie Smith. Carole Davis was assistant director.

The brawn of the class having been well-exploited, the brains were recognized as new Honor Society members were chosen. Junior members consisted of Ruella Dockins, Emily English, Patsy Tennyson, Jann Guest, Patty Sue Rich, Sylvia Payne, Irma Johnson, Glenn McLaughlin, Dick Earnest, Franklin Niles, Clarence Payne, Ronnie Morris, and Ellis Rae Harvey.

At the close of a highly successful year the Juniors, having banished all stage fright, are now looking forward to the prominent place they have earned in the third and final act of the endless production of Shawnee Senior High School.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

It was three years ago that we were preparing to embark upon the great production of Shawnee Senior High School, when on March 27, 1948, our future stage came down in a fire that left us homeless for almost two years. The first act of our show, in our sophomore year, usually a term of meekly serving the upperclassmen, we found ourselves leading Junior High School. We elected Dick Liddell, president; L. T. West, vice-president; Nancy Kidd, secretary; and Beverly Kempf, treasurer. Rita Montgomery, football attendant, and Barbara Burrough, basketball attendant, were the royalty of our class. Our sponsors were J. G. Hill and Birdie Alley.

In the second act, as juniors, we were moved to the campus of Oklahoma Baptist University where we were completely astounded by our temporary "schoolhouse." It was a busy year, with Russell Jones as our president; Bill Fleming, vice-president; Jean Young secretary; and Nancy Kidd, treasurer. We were ably guided by Rita Huff and Beryl Korb. Barbara Morris was elected football and basketball attendant. Floyd Henson and Mary Truesdell were our representatives to the cheerleading group. The great honor of being Hi-Y sweetheart was bestowed upon Nancy Kidd. Martha Huffman, Julianne Hardin, Joanne Johnson, Noel Williams, Virgil Walker, Rita Montgomery, Ann Barnett, Roberta Viar, Nancy Kidd, Patricia Hill, Russell Jones, Pete Davis, Pat Dover, Faye Boykin were chosen for the National Honor Society. Hal King, Julianne Hardin, Patricia Hill, and Clara Michener were casted in the Student Council play, "Life With Father." However, we were in our glory with our production, "The Scarecrow Creeps." Members of the cast were Marilu Brown, Russell Jones, Jack Rochelle, Harold Heath, Beverle Smalley, Floyd Henson, Ann McBride, Patricia Hill, Rennel McKerracher, Julianne Hardin, and Bill Fleming. Rita Montgomery and Floyd Henson were the juniors selected to attend the Student Council Convention in Charleston. West Virginia. Three members of our class were elected to state offices in various organizations. Jack Rochelle was elected state president of the Oklahoma Interscholastic Press Association. Joe Markham was state president of Phi Tau Alpha; Patricia Hill was made state secretary of the Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y convention in Oklahoma City. On February 4, 1950, open house was held for our new Shawnee High School. We moved into the building the following Monday. The year ended with the juniors in charge of the Junior-Senior Reception at the American Legion Hall and the Junior-Senior Prom at Teen Town.

The next year in the finale we were the stars of the show. We had a new building and we were, at last, honored seniors. The officers were Rudy Cast, president; David Braungardt, vice-president; Ann McBride, secretary; and Jean Young, treasurer. Mary Truesdell was made football queen; Marilu Brown was crowned basketball queen. We were quite proud of Bernard Wilson for making the All-American and All-State football teams. High in our esteem also, is James Harbison, who made All-Star and All-State basketball teams. Attending the Career Conference at Norman were Roberta Viar and Virgil Walker. Our greatest production, "Heaven Can Wait," was given on April 6. Included in the cast were Patricia Hill, Jim LaClaire, Bill Higley, Jack Hohenstein, Faye Boykin, Judie Tucker, Clara Michener, Naomi Gaines, Betty Holliman, Dewey Loftis, David Braungardt, Eddie Lynam, Jo Ann Polk, Jack Rochelle, Hal King, Noel Williams, and Bernard Wilson. The social event of the year, the Senior Prom, was held on May 19; the Junior-Senior Reception, staged by the juniors, was on May 23. Our role in Shawnee High School came to an end at Commencement May 24.

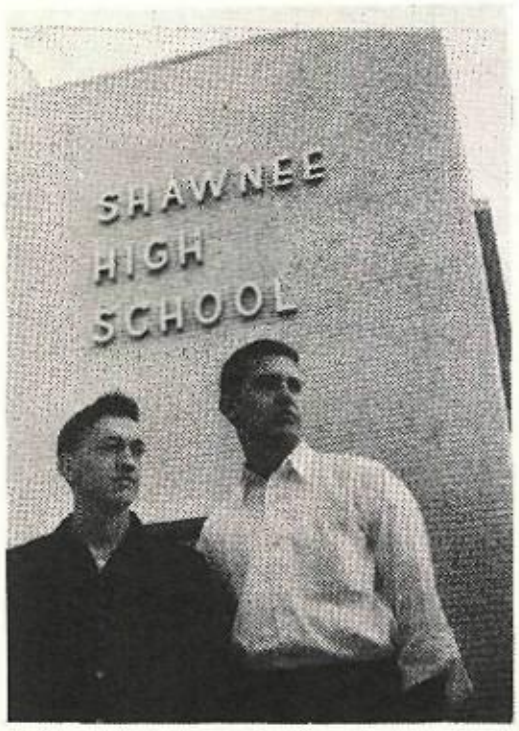
Fiends — camera that is.

The main event of any Senior Day.

Our two beauties, Miss Hadacol and Miss Anti-Freeze, and Wild Bill Brokaw pose with the victorious senior flag.

Two seniors, Russell Jones and Tom Brown, as they appeared the morning after the "Battle of the Senior Flag."

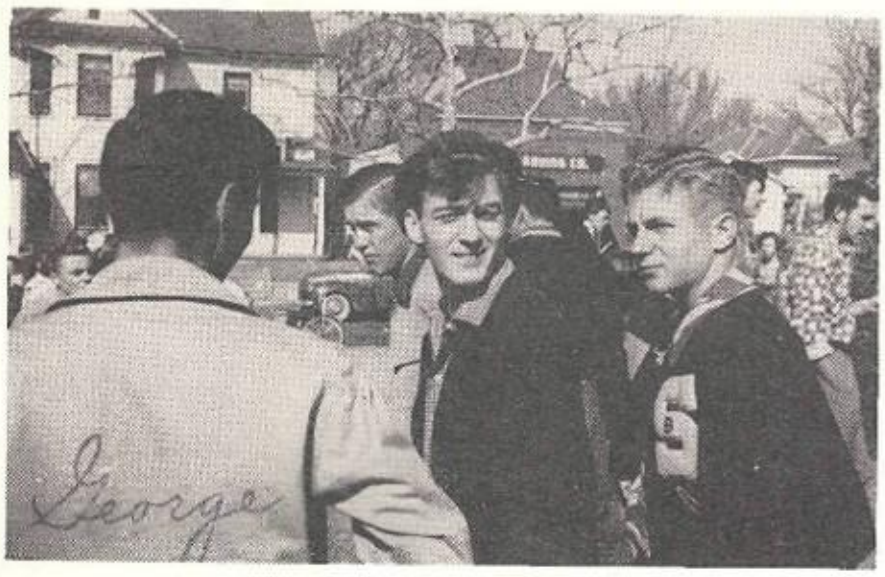


Our holiday really wasn't complete with Bill in the Navy and Pat in the Marines.

M-m-m-m, where did you say we enlist?

Everyone, including Ann, Rosalie, and Nan, wore happy smiles on Senior Day.

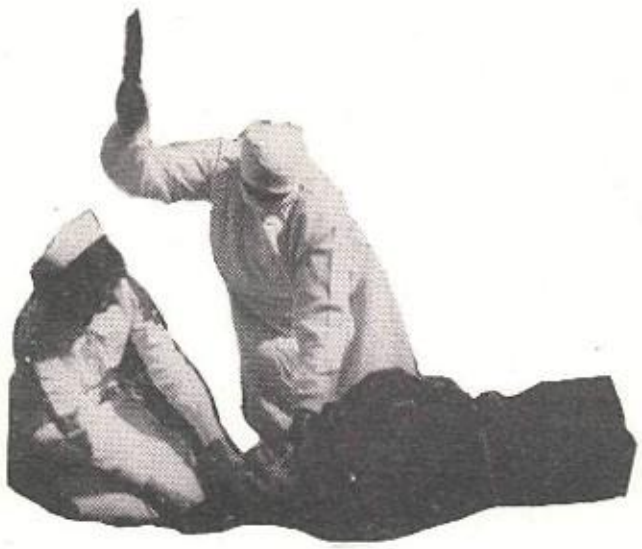
Something the matter, Russell? If not, there soon will be!



What's that you're saying, Jack?

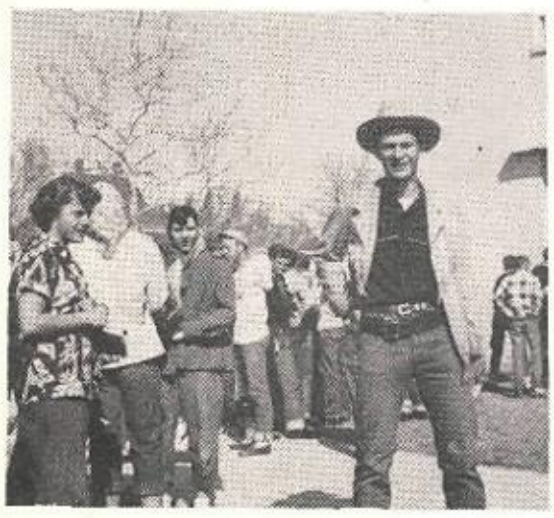
Those seniors just can't be beat.

The alarm didn't go off this morning, so—



Now then, we'll have you fixed up in just a moment.

"Mutt" Greer and "Jeff" Spangler certainly deserved their prize.



Eddie has been watching Hopalong on television too much.

alias A. W. Brokaw Har-rumph!

Now where did that Hollywood talent scout go?

Mixed and miscellaneous girls, all seniors; and vice-versa.

"Baby Face" McMakin and "Twenty-three Skidoo" Brokaw.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council began a very busy year under the leadership of the following officers: Russell Jones, president; Tom Brown, vice-president; Carole Davis, secretary; Glen McLaughlin, treasurer; Norman Hoover, parliamentarian, and Rita Montgomery, historian. The group was well sponsored by Mr. Jack Neavill and Miss Mary Trinkle.

Emily English, Kathrine Cowen, Marilu Brown, Carole Davis, Russell Jones, Floyd Henson, and Dick Earnest attended the convention of the Southern Association of Student Councils held October 19, 20, and 21, in Oklahoma City. There, Shawnee was chosen delegate from West of the Mississippi to attend the convention of the National Association of Student Councils to be held near Boston, Massachusetts, in June of 1951.

Shawnee was elected president of the Federation of Oklahoma High School Student Councils at the annual convention held December 7, 8, and 9, at Norman. A large delegation attended and helped in the campaigning which resulted in an overwhelming majority of votes for Shawnee. Dick Earnest was later elected by the Council to fill the office.

"The Other Shepard" was chosen as the annual Student Council play and was very well presented.

Highly elaborate coronation ceremonies were held for the football and basketball queens. Despite the freezing weather the football coronation was acclaimed by many authorities as the best football coronation of the 1950 season in the state of Oklahoma. The basketball ceremony was just as colorful.

Other activities included conducting all school elections, revision of the constitution, and the beginning of a homecoming program that promises to develop into a great annual event.

Beginning with the second semester, meetings were held on school time. With this convenience many things were accomplished and the Student Council recorded a very good year.

STUDENT COUNCIL PLAY

The Student Council Play, "The Other Shepherd," was presented on December 21 at Municipal Auditorium. The play under the direction of Jack Neavill had a Christmas theme and pictured the birth of Christ.

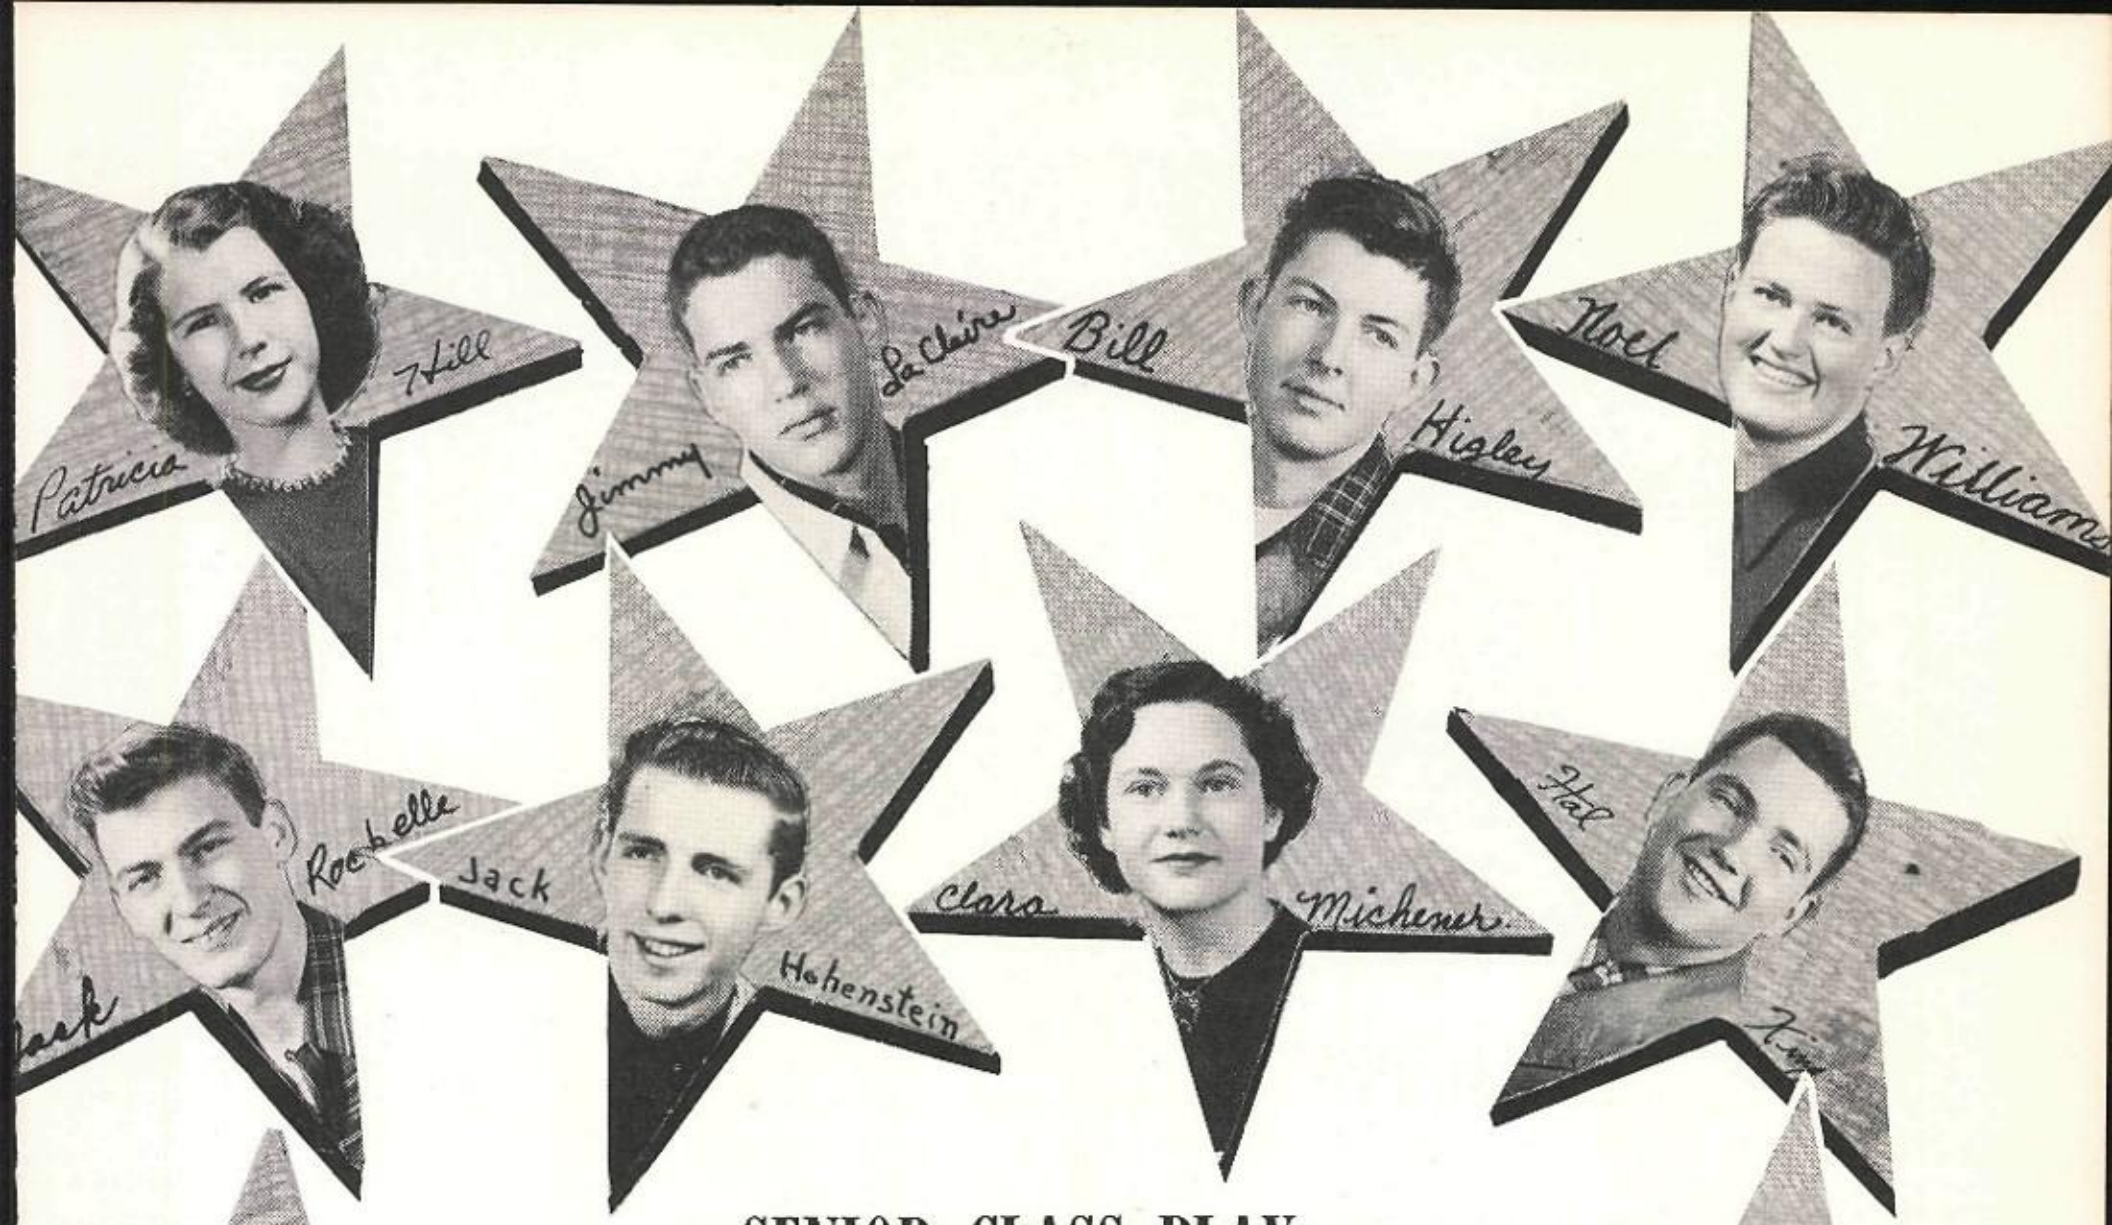
The play had a cast of eleven students who were: Dewey Loftis, Noel Williams, Jack Hohenstein, Bill Oden, Sharon Haddock, Beverly Kempf, Arden Surber, Bill Higley, Mary Johnson, Clara Michener, Jean Young.

The high school chorus also played a very important part. They provided the background music during the play and also entertainment during the intermission.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

" We Shook the Family Tree" was the hilarious three-act comedy presented by the Junior Class at the Municipal Auditorium, February 8th. Patsy Tennyson had the feminine lead, Hildegarde Dolson, a slim sixteen-year-old girl whose main desire was to attend the prom. Complications set in when she found that her date was none other than Freddie Shermer, the only boy in school who still wore knickers. The part of Freddie was played by Bob Carey. Others in the cast were: Freeman Scarlett, Bob Maynard, Ruella Dockins, Donna Schuyler, Joan Newberry, Jann Guest, Willene Smith, Eddie Rickey, Glenda Coppage, and Dickie Smith.

The production under the direction of Mr. Jack Neavil, was a huge success. Carole Davis was assistant director, and Dick Earnest handled the business affairs.



SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"Heaven Can Wait," produced by the Senior Class, was given on April 6, 1951. A three-act comedy, the play centered around Joe Pendleton, a prizefighter, played by Jim LaClaire, and Mr. Jordan, an angel, portrayed by Bill Higley. Joe was killed in an airplane crash fifty years before his time to die; it was Mr. Jordan's duty to replace Joe's lost body, enabling him to live out his time on earth. The result was a comical situation, well presented, under the direction of Jack Neavill. The cast included Patricia Hill, Jack Hohenstein, Faye Boykin, Judie Tucker, Clara Michener, Naomi Gaines, Betty Holliman, Dewey Loftis, David Braungardt, Eddie Lynam, Jack Rochelle, Hal King, Noel Williams, and Bernard Wilson.

Jo Ann Polk was assistant director; Rudy Cast, class president. was in charge of business arrangements.

First row: Roberta Viar, Willadean Watkins, Ann Shull, Charles Spangler.
Second row: Georganne Peeples, Ruth Deatherage, Phillip Offil, Wendell Kirk, Fred Ruth, Bruce Silvey, Charles Bassett.
Third row: Betty Holliman, Bill Higley, Gail Bayless, Kenneth Hinshaw, Gerald Zorger, Bob Stephens, Eugene Taylor, Arthur Meyers, Paul Slater.

This year's basketball team was undoubtedly the finest to come out of our community. The sportsmanship and team spirit displayed this year are reason enough for the winning of the State Championship. The boys who were on this team are extremely proud to have received such an honor and Shawnee is looking forward to brighter and finer athletics in the future.

Harbison Is All-State Choice

Wolves' big 'Red' to play for South

By ROY ANGEL,
(News-Star Sports Editor)

And many a foe will say amen!

James "Red" Harbison, rugged three-sport star who helped the Shawnee Wolves get their first state highschool basketball championship in the 34-year history of the title meets, Saturday was named to the 1951 Oklahoma highschool all-state basketball team.

The big 6-2, 185-pound carrot-thatched center, who manages about the court with ghost-like ease, was one of 10 players selected on the Daily Oklahoman's South squad. Harbison and his all-star teammates will oppose the North team in the all-star game at Oklahoma City in August.

There wasn't much doubt Harbison, a senior, would make the all-state squad after the Wolves swept to the state title last week. He, along with Ronnie Morris, the Wolves' brilliant junior, were choices on the state tournament all-star team.

Harbison qualified for a berth on the all-state team by his fine all-around play. He scored well—hitting 97 field goals and 83 free throws for 277 points in 27 games. His average was 10.2.

James "Red" Harbison
Shawnee's all-state cager

Seemingly at his best where the going was roughest—and that's around the backboards, Harbison more than held his own with opposing centers—and some of the pivots towered from one to three inches above the Shawnee redhead.

His scoring was consistent. His biggest single game output was 17—and he turned that trick three times. "Red" tallied 17 as the Wolves nipped Classen 40-39. In the finals of the regional his 17 points helped the Pack prevail 43-42 over Cushing and he collected another 17 against Bartlesville in the state semifinals.

"Over the whole season Harbison was a big factor in our success," coach Dewayd Jameson of the Wolves said Saturday. "He hit well, was powerful around the backboards and was a good pivot man."

Jameson added: "We didn't use him off the post because we concentrated on a balanced attack but Red would have scored 15 more points if we had built our offense around him. And he was able to handle about every center we put him on."

"It's up to him," Jameson said when questioned about Harbison's chances of a college cage career. "He can make someone a good college player if he makes up his mind that he wants to."

Harbison, who is at that perfect draft age—18, hasn't made up his mind about college. He has no particular choice of schools. "I'll go to any of them if they'll give me a way to go," the redhead said.

Although he was an outstanding end on the football team and is a hurdler on the track squad, Harbison's favorite sport is basketball. However, he intends to take a shot at football, too, when he goes to college.

Prior to his choice on the all-state team, Harbison's biggest sports thrills came when the Wolves won the state title and when he was named to the tournament all-star team.

Harbison launched his career in the sixth grade on a church team. At Irving school his basketball coach was Buddy Wilcoxson. He lettered on the junior high cage team when he was in the eighth grade.

Harbison rated Ken Young, the Enid center, as the toughest individual player he performed against the past season and rated Oklahoma City Northeast as the toughest team.

James "Big Red" Harbison, who has been an outstanding player since his sophomore year, has finally fulfilled one of his ambitions. Another honor he received, along with Ronnie Morris, was his being selected on the tournament all-star team. Red has a fine future in college athletics in the coming year.

Did You Ever Wonder

—about the inconvenience of having to go to the store every day for electricity to run your home? A sack of current to light the lamps . . . and a carton to heat the iron . . . and a package to sweep the floors . . . and bundles of electricity to do this chore and that chore . . . it would get a bit monotonous, wouldn't it?

But you don't have to do this? You flick a switch and faster than sound, your servant, Reddy Kilowatt, is right on the job. And, he's there 24 hours around the clock and 365 days around the calendar.

It is just like a friend of ours said, "We get the best electricity in the world . . . American electricity . . . and served by folks who know how."

Congratulations
